MEDIATION AGREEMENT 222 W Las Colinas Blvd, Ste 1650 Irving, Texas 75039

This is a mediation agreement between _____ and _____. Each party agrees to make a sincere “good faith” effort to resolve the dispute.

The role of the mediator (s) is to help the parties develop a satisfactory and realistic resolution to their dispute. The mediator is not a judge or arbitrator and does not provide legal services or advice.

The parties retain the responsibility for their decision-making and will not be coerced into any agreement.

The mediation is a confidential process both during and after the mediation. The mediators will not reveal what was said in the mediation except as required by law such as child abuse or a threat to physical harm.

If an agreement is reached, the terms shall be put in writing by the mediators. All parties shall be asked to carefully review the terms of the agreement before it is put into final agreement or signature. Open and confidential communication is essential. All notes shall be shredded, and only the written agreement is public record.
